The rationale behind moving all the CPSAL schools into the PSAL <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The PSAL currently has bylaws already written for a wider scope of sports. So as schools in the newly formed PSAL grow and expand their programs, bylaws already exist to govern those sports, while the CPSAL currently does not have the same scope of sports bylaws. ➤ The PSAL WILL have to change some of their current bylaws to accommodate the new schools, however it was felt that the current name of the Private School Athletic League, was a better reflection of the makeup of the schools in the current Christian Private School Athletic League. Of course at any time a league may change their own name, but as it currently exists the committee believed moving all CPSAL schools into the PSAL was the preferred alignment at this time. ➤ In addition the currently CPSAL Commissioner's school would be moving to the WBAL, should the proposal pass and the current PSAL Commissioner's school would be remaining in the PSAL, which would provide an experienced Commissioner for the PSAL remaining in place, should the members of the proposed PSAL so desire.
